

Malaysia's Largest And Most Significant Motor Show Is Making A Comeback!

Thursday, 21 December 2017

The Malaysian automotive industry will be boosted by the Kuala Lumpur International Motor Show (KLIMS), which is making a comeback after a five-year hiatus.

The Malaysian Automotive Association (MAA) has announced the comeback of the Kuala Lumpur International Motor Show (KLIMS) in 2018!

It has been a five-year wait since the previous KLIMS, auto marques and the automotive industry are now set to make another ground breaking showcases of launches and concept cars for the Kuala Lumpur International Motor Show 2018.

Here is what you need to know about the fanfare arrival of KLIMS2018!

Arrival dates

23 November to 2 December 2018

Destination

Malaysia International Trade & Exhibition Centre (MITEC)

Theme

#beyondmobility

The 10-days auto extravaganza is again expected to attract the highest record of participants from the automotive industry and captains of the industry, as well as visitors comprising of auto enthusiasts, lifestyle purveyors, members of the media, celebrities and influencers, the public at large and families.

If you are in the auto industry, this most anticipated event to claim your stake in the market is not to be missed. Get ready for an immersive automotive experience at KLIMS 2018!